

INITIAL RESPONSE & SAFETY When Safety Matters

Fire Extinguisher Use PUAWER008B Confine Small Workplace Emergencies

Course Overview This course is designed for persons who could be required to undertake first response to fire incidents requiring the use of portable fire extinguishers and/ or fire blankets. The successful attendee will obtain skills and knowledge required to safely use and operate portable fire fighting equipment relevant to the type of incident.

Course Outline

- Course introduction and enrolment
- Types of fire analysed
- The fire triangle
- Types of fire extinguishers
- Where to store fire fighting equipment
- Fire blankets
- Evacuation procedures
- Co-ordination of emergency services
- Operation of fire extinguishers and blankets
- Fire fighting techniques
- Assessment of students' competence

Course Logistics

Where: On site, or our training rooms

Duration: To maximize learning benefits, it is recommended that this course be conducted with a maximum of 12 participants over a period of up to 4 hours.

Resources: Suitable classroom equipped with whiteboard. A suitable area to light and extinguish small fires.

Certification Upon successful completion of this course, each student will receive a nationally recognised Statement of Attainment. Nationally Accredited training is delivered in association with OHS A RTO No. 31092.