

INITIAL RESPONSE & SAFETY When Safety Matters

HLTAID003 PROVIDE FIRST AID

Course Overview Through the combination of theory and practical training, this course provides participants with the necessary knowledge and skills required to confidently and competently apply first aid.

Course Outline

- Course introduction and enrolment
- Legal aspects
- Primary survey
- Resuscitation
- Cross infection
- Casualty assessment & secondary survey
- Breathing emergencies & cardiac conditions
- Shock & anaphylaxis
- Bleeding & wounds
- Chest injuries
- Soft tissue injuries & fractures
- Head & spinal injuries
- Eye injuries
- Diabetes
- Epilepsy, convulsions & stroke
- Thermal injuries
- Burns
- Poisons
- Venomous bites & stings
- Workplace first aid
- Assessment of students' competence

Course Logistics

Where: On site.

Duration: To maximize learning benefits, it is recommended that this course be conducted with a maximum of 12 participants over a period of one day face to face plus prior completion of the course workbook.

Resources: Suitable classroom equipped with whiteboard.

Certification Upon successful completion of this course, each student will receive a nationally recognised Statement of Attainment. This Nationally accredited training is delivered in association with First Aid Action - RTO# 31668.

000-TR-A-007 Rev4

